Chinese: Second Language ATAR course practical (oral) examination

This document provides general advice to teachers, candidates and parents about the Chinese: Second Language ATAR course practical (oral) examination.

Where the Year 12 ATAR course has both written and practical examinations, students are required to sit for both of these examinations. Students who do not sit an ATAR course examination and do not have an approved sickness/misadventure application for that course will not have the grades for the pair of units completed in that year contribute to the calculation of the Western Australian Certificate of Education (WACE).

The practical (oral) examination for the Chinese: Second Language ATAR course will be held during the period from Saturday, 8 October to Sunday, 16 October 2022 (weekends included) at metropolitan locations. Candidates must be available to complete their practical (oral) examination during this time. A Personalised practical examination timetable (Appendix 1) for each candidate will be made available from Tuesday, 6 September 2022 for schools/providers to download via SIRS and for students to download via the School Curriculum and Standards Authority (the Authority student portal \(https://studentportal.scsa.wa.edu.au/\)). Country candidates are expected to sit their practical (oral) examination via telephone or may choose to travel to the examination centre at their own cost.

For the Chinese: Second Language ATAR course examination, the weightings are:

- Written examination 70%
- Practical (oral) examination 30%

1. Reporting achievement

Teachers are responsible for ensuring the practical (oral) examination requirements are met and making sure candidates are adequately prepared. Teachers must ensure they are using the current syllabus. Any further advice on matters related to the syllabus or assessment will be published in the 11to12 Circulars \(https://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/publications/circular-ecircular/11to12-circulars\) on the Authority website.

Teachers should also refer to the ATAR course examination information published in Section 6 of the WACE Manual \(https://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/publications/wace-manual\) on the Authority website.

For all ATAR courses with a practical examination, for the pair of units, schools are required to submit to the Authority a:

- course mark out of 100 (weighted for each component)
- mark out of 100 for the written component
- mark out of 100 for the practical component
- grade for the completed pair of units.

2. Provisions for sickness/misadventure

Consideration may be given to candidates (except non-school candidates) who believe their performance in a practical examination may have been affected by an unexpected sickness, or unforeseen event beyond their control, close to or during the examination. Such candidates may apply for sickness/misadventure consideration. Candidates may make an application for sickness/misadventure by 4.00 pm Tuesday, 22 November 2022 using the form available in schools or from the Applications and Order Forms page \(https://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/forms/forms\) on the Authority website.

3. Principles of external assessment

The marking process preserves the anonymity of candidates and their school. This requires that candidates are identified only by their Western Australian student number (WASN).

Markers apply a consistent standard to assess the candidate's performance. This requires:

- a marking key for the practical (oral) examination
- attendance at a marker training meeting prior to the commencement of marking
- trial marking of sample oral recordings to ensure a common understanding of the marking key
- the practical (oral) examination to be marked independently by two markers who then reconcile any differences between them
- the Chief Marker to ensure consistency throughout the marking by monitoring the marking process and reconciling significant differences where necessary.

4. Criteria for marking

Practical (oral) performance is assessed on what a candidate is able to demonstrate through each part of the interview. The Chinese: Second Language ATAR course practical (oral) marking key 2022, published on the Authority website, identifies the assessment criteria suited to each part of the interview task and describes levels of candidate performance for each criterion. Therefore, candidates are advised to familiarise themselves with the marking key as preparation for their performance in the examination. For Part C of the examination, candidates are strongly advised to participate in a conversation with the marker, rather than attempt to recite a prepared response that resembles a monologue. In the interest of the candidate, such monologues will be interrupted by the marker at an appropriate point.

A numerical scale is used to assess candidate performance in the practical (oral) examination. All candidates are examined against the following criteria:

- comprehension
- response (relevance and depth of information)
- language range (vocabulary and grammar)
- language accuracy (grammar)
- speech (flow, pronunciation and intonation).

5. Marking procedure

Each candidate's practical (oral) examination is marked independently by two markers. One marker conducts the interview while the second marker sits in the background and makes notes on the candidate's performance. An audio recording of each candidate's performance is made. The audio recordings are used to ensure comparability between markers.

6. Examination procedure

On the day of the practical (oral) examination, the candidate must bring a signed hard copy of their Personalised practical examination timetable to the examination as proof of enrolment, together with a form of photographic ID for proof of identity. An image of their Personalised practical examination timetable on their mobile phone will not be accepted as proof of enrolment.

The candidate may bring one combined print dictionary (one Chinese/English and English/Chinese dictionary) or two separate print dictionaries (one English/Chinese dictionary and one Chinese/English dictionary). Dictionaries must not contain any notes or other marks. No electronic dictionaries are allowed.

If a candidate is found with any unauthorised materials during the examination, they will be referred to the Breach of Examination Rules Committee.

Candidates must not wear or carry anything that identifies them, any school, club or achievements. Failure to do so will result in a breach of examination rules. The candidate is responsible for their personal belongings at all times.

The candidate is required to report to a supervisor at the examination centre at the scheduled reporting time. This reporting time is 20 minutes before the scheduled examination time. The scheduled examination time is the time at which the candidate begins their preparation. The practical (oral) examination includes both the preparation time and interview.

A candidate who has not reported to a supervisor once their scheduled examination time has commenced will not be admitted to the practical (oral) examination and the examination cannot be rescheduled.

The supervisor takes the candidate to a preparation room. There may be more than one candidate being supervised in the preparation room.

At the commencement of the scheduled examination time, a supervisor gives the candidate a choice of stimulus item and a preparation booklet. During the preparation time, the candidate prepares for the interview by making notes in their preparation booklet and, if they wish, by referring to their dictionary.

The candidate must leave the examination area once they have completed their examination and must not have contact with candidates waiting to be examined, or teachers, or other parties who are seeking feedback from the examination until all the examinations have concluded. Failure to do so could result in a breach of examination rules.

7. Breach of examination rules

An alleged breach of examination rules will be referred to the Breach of Examination Rules Committee. Further information related to examination breaches can be found on the Rules of Conduct for Year 12 ATAR Course Examinations page \(https://senior-secondary.scsa.wa.edu.au/assessment/examinations/rules-of-conduct-for-atar-course-examinations\) on the Authority website and in Part II of the Year 12 Information Handbook, published in July.

A breach of one of these rules can result in cancellation of part or all of the practical raw examination mark.

8. Structure of the practical (oral) examination

Examination	Duration
Part A: Viewing and preparation of stimulus	15 minutes
Part B: Discussion of stimulus	approximately 3 minutes
Part C: Conversation	approximately 9 minutes

9. Conduct of the practical (oral) examination

Part A: Viewing and preparation of stimulus (15 minutes)

At the start of the preparation time, the candidate is provided with a preparation booklet and five stimulus items by the supervisor. Each stimulus item has an image and a focus question/statement in Chinese and English related to a topic from Unit 3 or Unit 4. The candidate chooses one stimulus item and places the remaining four in front of them on their table where they remain for the duration of Part A of the examination.

During the preparation time, the candidate prepares responses to the stimulus item and makes notes in the preparation booklet. These notes may be taken into the interview room and may be referred to during Part B of the examination; however, the candidate should ensure they do not read from the notes. The candidate may refer to a dictionary during the preparation time, but not during Part B and Part C of the examination.

Before leaving the preparation room, the candidate hands the chosen stimulus item to the supervisor. The candidate takes their preparation booklet into the interview room.

The candidate also takes all their belongings, including dictionaries, with them to the interview room and is instructed where to place them for the duration of the interview.

Part B: Discussion of stimulus (approximately 3 minutes)

When the candidate enters the interview room, the marker begins by greeting the candidate in Chinese and then asks them in English to state their WASN. The candidate reads out their WASN in English.

Marker: 早上好. 准备好了吗?

Candidate: 早上好. 准备好了, 不过我有点紧张。

Marker: I am your interviewer for the Chinese: Second Language Practical (oral) examination today. Can you read me your WA student number in English please?

Candidate: Yes, my number is ...

Marker: Thank you. I'll repeat that number (repeats numbers to confirm).

The marker initiates Part B of the examination with the following reminder:

Marker: You may refer to your notes, but please do not read them.

The marker asks the candidate a question to confirm the chosen stimulus item:

Marker: 你挑的是哪张图片?

Candidate: 我挑的是一号图片。

The marker then reads the focus question/statement provided with the stimulus item as a prompt to initiate discussion.

Marker: 请开始。

The candidate responds to the question/statement by talking in Chinese about the stimulus item, and explaining how it relates to the topics of Unit 3 or Unit 4. The candidate may refer to their notes, but not read them.

The marker asks questions about the stimulus item that provides the candidate with the opportunity to express ideas and opinions. The candidate uses their responses to support the discussion and should aim to display a flexible use of a range of linguistic structures and vocabulary during this time.

At the end of Part B, the marker asks the candidate whether they have any more to add to the discussion and then asks for their preparation booklet.

Marker: 你还有什么想说的吗?

Candidate: 没有了。

or

有。

Marker: 谢谢! 请把你的草稿本给我, 好吗?

Part C: Conversation (approximately 9 minutes)

In Part C, the candidate participates in a conversation in Chinese with the marker drawing on a range of topics from Unit 3 and Unit 4.

The marker initiates Part C of the examination.

For example:

Marker: 你打算明年做什么？

The marker asks questions to encourage the candidate to speak about the topics from Unit 3 and Unit 4. Neither the number of questions nor the number of topics covered by the examination is predetermined; however, the candidate can expect to be asked a range of questions sampling the content of both course units. The questions the marker asks may relate to a previous response made by the candidate or introduce a new topic. The range and depth of questions asked are sufficient to allow an accurate assessment of the candidate's linguistic ability. The candidate uses their responses to demonstrate their Chinese oral communication skills and understandings of the topics of each of the course units.

At the end of Part C, the marker stands, thanks the candidate and states that the examination has concluded.

Marker: 谢谢！今天的考试就到这儿。再见！
