Literature prescribed text lists

Updated for use by Year 11 students 2023 onwards and Year 12 students 2024 onwards.

The Literature ATAR text lists are prescribed for Year 12 and recommended for Year 11.

Texts are arranged into the three genres: poetry, drama and prose fiction.

Teachers should choose texts from these prescribed lists that allow them to cover the content of the unit and to achieve the learning outcomes.

Students are required to study at least one Australian text (i.e. one novel, or play, or a selection of the work of one poet or a selection of Australian short stories) in each pair of units.

Poetry texts

Teachers may choose to use any poems from the poets listed below.

Prose fiction texts

Short stories

* Australian writers/texts are indicated with an asterisk

Updated for use by Year 11 students 2023 onwards and Year 12 students 2024 onwards.

The Literature ATAR text lists are prescribed for Year 12 and recommended for Year 11.

Literature teachers and students must ensure all texts they wish to use as primary references in the ATAR examination appear in the prescribed text lists. There is an examination penalty of 15% of the total available marks for the paper applied for any examination response that uses, as a primary reference, a text that does not appear in the prescribed text lists.

If an ATAR examination candidate from 2024 onwards refers to a short story as a primary reference, that short story must be listed below.

Where a short story title is listed without an anthology title, teachers may use that story wherever it has been published. The short stories listed in anthologies may also be sourced from other publications, but it is only the short stories listed below that may be referred to as primary references in the Literature ATAR examination.
