| Extended written response | 15% | 7.5% | Commence Semester 1 Week 3 | Task 1: Part A
Write a journal entry for at least two of the poems studied in class. In your response to each poem, discuss the use of language and conventions in the poem, the context and how you read the poem's representation of one of the following: a cultural group, gender, class, desire or place. Include your personal response to the poem. (In class, Week 3 and 4)
Part B
Respond in your journal to issues that arise in class as we analyse the text Home and Away by John Marsden and Matt Ottley. You will write about the form of the text as well as the language and content. Explain what makes this text literary. (Week 7)
Part C
Write a reflection on your work completed this semester. Elaborate on your strengths and weaknesses across the range of tasks and activities completed and explain which areas you would like to improve on in the following unit. (In class, Week 15) | Language and generic conventions
- the production and reception of texts is informed by an understanding of the conventions usually associated with a genre
Contextual understandings – the relationships between writer, reader, text and context
- in responding to a literary text, readers might consider the context of the writer, the society and culture in which the text was produced, their own experience of reading and their own way of thinking about the world
Producing texts
- develop an understanding of the processes of textual production, reflecting upon their own work and making informed judgements about the strengths and weaknesses of their work, either individually or collaboratively |
| | | | Due Semester 1 Week 15 | Task 12:
Reflective journal, including a minimum of three entries on texts studied in Semester 2, demonstrating understanding of language and generic conventions and contextual understandings. | Producing texts
- produce ... reflective ... texts taking into account considerations of audience, purpose and context |

| Short written response | Task 3: Home and Away presents an alternative view of asylum seekers to what is generally presented to Australian audiences. Explain, referring to techniques used, how this has been achieved by the author and illustrator, and their impact on your interpretation of the text. You may focus on the book, the DVD or both. (In class) | Semester 1 Week 7 | 7.5% Semester 1 Week 7 | Contextual understandings – the relationships between writer, reader, text and context
• the ideas represented in a text are just one possible way of thinking about the world and may reflect a particular set of values and attitudes
• reading a literary text involves applying strategies which help us make meaning of texts such as reading with an emphasis on various representations; or reading with a focus on different contexts; or reading intertextually, that is, reading that focuses on connections among texts. Different reading strategies produce different readings and therefore, multiple readings of a text are possible
Language and generic conventions
• the different ways in which language can be used involves choices about audience, purpose and genre
• language is a medium used to offer representations of the world and to position readers |
