

Application form for appeal against languages enrolment determination

A student who wishes to appeal against the School Curriculum and Standards Authority’s languages enrolment determination must use this form. To appeal the original determination, additional information must be provided. Upon receipt of this application and the additional information, the Authority’s Appeal Panel will consider the student’s enrolment status and make a final determination.

This application with a fee of $17.00 (GST inclusive) must arrive at the Authority by 4:30 pm on the date specified in the notification email. [Note: late applications cannot be considered]
